DENVER – September 7, 2011 – Colorado Symphony donors and special guests will enjoy an exclusive sneak preview of the upcoming 2011/12 season at the Symphony's second annual Donor Appreciation Concert on Wednesday, September 14. A gathering for the community of people whose support makes Colorado Symphony concerts and programs possible, the Donor Appreciation Concert features selections from several of the beautiful works showcased in the 2011/12 Masterworks series, plus a few exquisite surprises. From Rossini's *The Barber of Seville to Mozart's Symphony No. 40 in G minor, the concert program sparkles with many of the orchestral gems that concertgoers will look forward to in the coming season.

Led by resident conductor Scott O'Neil, the event is a meaningful way for the Colorado Symphony to say "thank you" to donors, community leaders and music lovers whose support sustains the non-profit organization on a yearly basis. Concert planners, who hope to double attendance numbers in the event's second year, will open the doors for seating at 5:30 p.m., with the concert beginning at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are required for this "by invitation only" event. Donors may request their ticket(s) by calling the Colorado Symphony Box Office at 303.623.7876 or emailing tickets@coloradosymphony.org.

The Colorado Symphony 2011/12 Pops Series opens with a fusion of jazz, swing, Dixieland and big-band music on Saturday, September 17 as Big Bad Voodoo Daddy brings its special recipe for high-voltage rhythms to Denver's Boettcher Concert Hall. Then, superstar violinist Joshua Bell joins conductor Peter Oundjian and the Colorado Symphony on Sunday, September 18 for a spectacular One Night Only Special concert. To learn more about the 2011/12 season, visit www.coloradosymphony.org.

More than 4,000 individuals, along with a group of generous corporations and foundations make up the supporting body that sustains the Colorado Symphony with philanthropic support. The Colorado Symphony thanks all of its donors, sponsors and underwriters - including the 2011/12 season sponsors: United Airlines, The Denver Post, Genesis Inc., and the citizens of the Scientific and Cultural Facilities District (SCFD) as well as local foundations such as the Bonfils-Stanton Foundation, the Gates Family Foundation, and the Boettcher Foundation.

About the Colorado Symphony

The state's only full-time professional orchestra, the Colorado Symphony embraces a tradition of musical excellence by presenting a diverse array of symphonic performances throughout the year. Originally established in 1989 as the successor to the Denver Symphony, the Colorado Symphony performs in Boettcher Concert Hall and throughout the Front Range, presenting outstanding education and outreach programs, as well as Masterworks, Pops, Holiday, Family, and the exciting new Inside the Score and Symphony on the Rocks series that have attracted a historic level of first-time concertgoers. By presenting music that is both timeless and inspiring, while taking risks with new musical collaborations and interactive concerts, the Colorado Symphony is attracting more diverse and younger audiences than ever before. The increasing popularity of Colorado Symphony concerts as well as a strong fund-raising base not only re-affirms the artistic excellence of the orchestra, but also reflects the Symphony's relevance to its Colorado community and deep-rooted enthusiasm for symphonic music felt by so many individuals across the region. ENDOWMENTS

The following members of the Symphony family have established special funds to perpetuate the work of the Colorado Symphony for future generations. These endowed funds are gifts from individuals who have loved, believed in and supported the Colorado Symphony; to these individuals the Colorado Symphony extends unending gratitude.

The Dave and Pam Duke Families Guest Artist and Guest Conductor Fund
The Bill Gossard Music Director Chair
The Mary Rossick Kern and Jerome H. Kern Concertmaster Chair
The Principal Percussion Chair, Endowed by a Friend of the Colorado Symphony
The Charles S. Sterne Conductor's Podium

THE HORACE TUREMAN SOCIETY

Named for the first conductor of the Denver Civic Orchestra, the Horace Tureman Society honors an exceptional group of people who have pledged future support for the Symphony through an estate gift. The Tureman Society recognizes in perpetuity those making estate gifts through wills, living trusts, annuities, IRAs, retirement plans, charitable trusts, life insurance designations or other legacy giving vehicles. To learn more about composing your musical legacy through a planned gift, please contact Bill Albrecht, Planned and Major Gifts, at 303-308-2464 or balbrecht@coloradosymphony.org.
