COLORADO SYMPHONY ANNOUNCES TWO BEETHOVEN AND BREWS EVENTS FOR SPRING 2020

River North Brewery in Denver and the Farm House at Breckenridge Brewery in Littleton to play host to Colorado Symphony fundraisers

Dec. 12, 2019 – Denver, CO – The Colorado Symphony announces the next two installments of their Beethoven and Brews series at River North Brewery on February 12 at 6:30 p.m. and the Farm House at Breckenridge Brewery on March 18 at 6:30 p.m.

A fan favorite since debuting in 2015, the Beethoven and Brews series pairs delicious beer with great music in an intimate venue for an unforgettable and homegrown front-range experience. This will be the first Beethoven and Brews event at each venue.

“The Colorado Symphony is delighted to bring the incredible live symphonic music experience of our Beethoven and Brews series to River North Brewery and the Farm House at Breckenridge Brewery,” said Anthony Pierce, Chief Artistic Officer for the Colorado Symphony, “It’s a special thrill for our musicians to bring these smaller ensemble performances to unique venues and we’re particularly excited to perform at a pair of breweries that are new to our Beethoven and Brews Series.”

General Admission tickets for the February 12 event at River North Brewery include a flight of four (4) beer tasters and light hors d’oeuvres while VIP ticket holders will receive an additional exclusive beer taster, custom brewery glassware, and a behind-the-scenes brewery tour. Additional beverages will be available for purchase.

General Admission tickets for the March 18 event at Breckenridge Brewery include two pints of beer and light hors d’oeuvres while VIP ticket holders will receive a pint of their choice and a set flight of beer, custom brewery glassware, and a behind-the-scenes brewery tour. Attendees are also invited to sample Breckenridge Brewery’s portfolio of beers throughout the event with additional beverages will be available for purchase.

The festivities kick off at 6:30 p.m. with VIP tours beginning at 6:00 p.m. All seating will be general admission. Tickets for both events are available now at the Boettcher Concert Hall Box Office or online at coloradosymphony.org. General admission ticket prices are $45 while VIP tickets are $65. Online sales will stop at 5:30 p.m. the day before the event. If not sold out, general admission tickets will be available the day of the event at the door for $50 beginning at 6:00 p.m. You must be 21-years-old or older to attend this event. Alternative forms of transportation are encouraged due to the nature of the event.

ABOUT RIVER NORTH BREWERY

Founded in 2012 by Matt and Jessica Hess, we are a small, tight-knit crew of brewers and beer fanatics. We brew what we love to drink: original, no-compromise ales and lagers that exemplify what independent beer is all about. We brew #AdventureFuel for the state of Colorado. Because Colorado deserves the best.

ABOUT BRECKENRIDGE BREWERY

Breckenridge Brewery opened its doors in 1990 in the mountain town of Breckenridge, Colorado. It's the third-oldest craft brewery in the state. Nestled below the slopes on Main Street, our brewpub continues to delight locals and visitors with a lively atmosphere, delicious pub fare, and of course, a great selection of beer. Our two locations, Breckenridge and Littleton, are destinations for locals and out-of-towners. As of 2016 Breckenridge Brewery became a proud member of The Brewers Collective, a family of craft breweries and unit of Anheuser-Busch. We now send beer to 49 states and continue to create new and exciting beers. Our portfolio contains classics like Vanilla Porter, Avalanche Amber Ale, Strawberry Sky, 472 Double IPA, and Hop Peak IPA, along with a variety of specialty beers that include seasonals, barrel-aged beers, the Brewery Lane Series, and a nitrogen-charged canned series.

ABOUT THE COLORADO SYMPHONY

One of the leading orchestras in the United States, the Colorado Symphony Association is a not-for-profit 501 (c)(3) organization performing more than 150 concerts annually at Boettcher Concert Hall in downtown Denver and across Colorado. Led by Music Director Brett Mitchell, the Colorado Symphony is home to eighty full-time musicians, representing more than a dozen nations, and regularly welcomes the most celebrated artists from the world of symphonic music and beyond. In the last year, the Colorado Symphony served nearly 233,000 people attending live performances at concert and non-traditional venues throughout Colorado's Front Range. In addition, over 265,000 people listen to the Colorado Symphony through Colorado Public Radio's live broadcasts of classical content featuring concert recordings, in-studio performances of individual musicians and small ensembles, and live streaming of interviews and performances with artists. Recognized as an incubator of innovation, creativity, and excellence, the Colorado Symphony continually expands its reach through education, outreach, and programming. The Colorado Symphony partners with the state's leading musical artists, cultural organizations, corporations, foundations, sports teams, and individuals to expose diverse audiences to the transformative power of music.
