Jul. 25, 2022 – Announcing Gregory Alan Isakov with the Colorado Symphony, a special two-night event taking place at Boettcher Concert Hall on August 19-20, 2022. In his first collaboration with the Colorado Symphony since 2017, Isakov will perform many of the songs from the 2016 album Gregory Alan Isakov with the Colorado Symphony and from his GRAMMY® nominated album Evening Machines, as well as a selection from his full catalog. The Colorado Symphony will be conducted by Resident Conductor Christopher Dragon.

Tickets will be available starting Wednesday, July 27. For concert descriptions and ticket information, please visit coloradosymphony.org/tickets or call the box office at 303.623.7876.

ABOUT GREGORY ALAN ISAKOV:

Born in Johannesburg, South Africa, and now calling Colorado home, horticulturist-turned-musician Gregory Alan Isakov has cast an impressive presence on the indie-rock and folk worlds with his five full-length studio albums: That Sea, The Gambler; This Empty Northern Hemisphere; The Weatherman; Gregory Alan Isakov with the Colorado Symphony; and Evening Machines (nominated for a GRAMMY® award for Best Folk Album). Isakov tours internationally with his band and has performed with several national symphony orchestras across the United States. In addition to owning his independent record label, Suitcase Town Music, he also manages a small farm in Boulder County, which provides produce to the farm's CSA members, local restaurants, and Community Food Share.

ABOUT THE COLORADO SYMPHONY

One of the leading orchestras in the United States, the Colorado Symphony Association is a not-for-profit 501 (c)(3) organization performing more than 150 concerts annually at Boettcher Concert Hall in downtown Denver and across Colorado. Led by Principal Conductor Peter Oundjian, the Colorado Symphony is home to eighty full-time musicians, representing more than a dozen nations, and regularly welcomes the most celebrated artists from the world of symphonic music and beyond. In the last year, the Colorado Symphony served nearly 233,000 people attending live performances at concert and non-traditional venues throughout Colorado's Front Range. Recognized as an incubator of innovation, creativity, and excellence, the Colorado Symphony continually expands its reach through in-person and virtual education programs, outreach, and programming. The Colorado Symphony partners with the state's leading musical artists, cultural organizations, corporations, foundations, sports teams, and individuals to expose diverse audiences to the transformative power of music.
