

Frankie Le'Troy

BIOGRAPHY

Frankie Le'Troy is an internationally recognized poet. As a child, Frankie suffered a severe speech impediment which caused him to have to re-learn how to speak as an adult. He gives full credit to God for his miraculous healing. Frankie's first poems have been shared around the U.S and also in Europe and Africa. His poems have also been used for course study at Minnesota University.

Appearing in several documentaries including the film 'Transcending Stuttering', Frankie has become an ambassador for anyone who has been afraid to share their voice. He has become a professional actor landing a role in the Netflix film 'Amateur'. His poems are known for their illustrative rhymes and passion that create a story he delivers to his audience. In Frankie's words "He was the boy who couldn't talk, now he is the man of many words".

RESOURCES

Frankie's Story from Transcending Stuttering Documentary

Frankie's Music and Poetry on ReverbNation

The Lazarus Project Album on YouTube

Frankie's YouTube channel The Book of Frankie