ANNOUNCING AN EVENING WITH HISS GOLDEN MESSENGER

American folk band led by M.C. Taylor makes their symphonic debut alongside the Colorado Symphony.

Jun. 23, 2025 – Denver, CO – The Colorado Symphony announces a one-night-only performance with Hiss Golden Messenger at Boettcher Concert Hall on October 25, 2025.

Hiss Golden Messenger's M.C. Taylor is thrilled to bring the first ever symphonic performance of the band's catalog to Denver for a very special evening with the Colorado Symphony. This unforgettable performance will feature arrangements by Jay Clifford (Jump, Little Children) with Resident Conductor Christopher Dragon, who has conducted performances featuring Nathaniel Rateliff and Gregory Alan Isakov, on the podium.

Tickets for this performance will go on-sale Friday, June 27 at 10am MDT. For concert descriptions and ticket information, please visit coloradosymphony.org or call the box office at 303.623.7876.

ABOUT THE COLORADO SYMPHONY

One of the leading orchestras in the United States, the Colorado Symphony Association is a not-for-profit 501 (c)(3) organization performing more than 150 concerts annually at Boettcher Concert Hall in downtown Denver and across Colorado. Led by Principal Conductor Peter Oundjian, the Colorado Symphony is home to eighty full-time musicians, representing more than a dozen nations, and regularly welcomes the most celebrated artists from the world of symphonic music and beyond. The orchestra celebrated its Centennial during the 2023/24 concert season. In the last year, the Colorado Symphony served over 340,000 people attending live performances at concert and non-traditional venues throughout Colorado's Front Range. Recognized as an incubator of innovation, creativity, and excellence, the Colorado Symphony continually expands its reach through in-person and virtual education programs, outreach, and programming. The Colorado Symphony partners with the state's leading musical artists, cultural organizations, corporations, foundations, sports teams, and individuals to expose diverse audiences to the transformative power of music.
