ANNOUNCING ELEPHANT REVIVAL WITH THE COLORADO SYMPHONY

Transcendental folk group joins the orchestra at Boettcher Concert Hall on April 3, 2024

Jan. 16, 2024 – Denver, CO – The Colorado Symphony is thrilled to announce a collaboration with the eclectic musical ensemble Elephant Revival on April 3, 2024 at Boettcher Concert Hall with Resident Conductor Christopher Dragon on the podium.

Experience the unfurling expansion of Elephant Revival's songs with the many-colored palette of your Colorado Symphony in Boettcher Concert Hall. Elephant Revival is a unique collection of multi-instrumentalists blending elements of Celtic, Americana, Folk and Indie Art Rock. The band consists of Bonnie Paine (vocals, cello, djembe, washboard and musical saw), Bridget Law (fiddle, vocals), Dango Rose (upright bass, mandolin, vocals), Charlie Rose (banjo, pedal steel, mandolin, vocals) Darren Garvey (drums, percussion, vocals) and Daniel Sproul (guitars, vocals) of Rose Hill Drive. The music they create together is like weather systems meeting in the sky, Bonnie's warmly haunting voice either merging with the rhythms and melodies of the band or providing a counterpoint and transforming it.

Tickets for this concert will be available starting Wednesday, January 17 at 10am MST. For concert descriptions and ticket information, please visit coloradosymphony.org/tickets or call the box office at 303.623.7876.
