ANNOUNCING THORGY THOR AND THE THORCHESTRA WITH THE COLORADO SYMPHONY

Thorgy Thor to dazzle in an unforgettable fusion of symphonic music and drag extravaganza

Oct. 9, 2023 – Denver, CO – Prepare to witness an extraordinary collaboration that will combine the worlds of classical music and drag artistry. The Colorado Symphony is thrilled to announce a collaboration with Thorgy Thor, renowned drag artist and musician, in a captivating performance at Denver’s Boettcher Concert Hall on February 3, 2024 with conductor Lee Mills.

Thorgy Thor rose to fame as the “Queen of Classical Music” on RuPaul’s Drag Race. You’ll be mesmerized with her fabulousity and virtuosity on the violin as she performs live with your Colorado Symphony. Wielding an outrageous fashion sense, razor-sharp wit, and classical music chops, this is a thrilling theatrical show audiences won’t want to miss. You’ll laugh, you’ll cry, and your heart will throb as Thorgy slays with song, dance, and hilarious shenanigans in this can’t-miss symphonic spectacular! Make sure you’re looking great and feeling Thorgeous!

ABOUT THE COLORADO SYMPHONY

One of the leading orchestras in the United States, the Colorado Symphony Association is a not-for-profit 501 (c)(3) organization performing more than 150 concerts annually at Boettcher Concert Hall in downtown Denver and across Colorado. Led by Principal Conductor Peter Oundjian, the Colorado Symphony is home to eighty full-time musicians, representing more than a dozen nations, and regularly welcomes the most celebrated artists from the world of symphonic music and beyond. The orchestra celebrates their Centennial during the 2023/24 concert season. In the last year, the Colorado Symphony served over 340,000 people attending live performances at concert and non-traditional venues throughout Colorado's Front Range. Recognized as an incubator of innovation, creativity, and excellence, the Colorado Symphony continually expands its reach through in-person and virtual education programs, outreach, and programming. The Colorado Symphony partners with the state's leading musical artists, cultural organizations, corporations, foundations, sports teams, and individuals to expose diverse audiences to the transformative power of music.
