ANNOUNCING WATCHHOUSE WITH THE COLORADO SYMPHONY

North Carolina duo returns to Boettcher Concert Hall on February 5, 2023

Nov. 9, 2022 – Denver, CO – The Colorado Symphony announces Watchhouse with the Colorado Symphony conducted by Christopher Dragon at Boettcher Concert Hall on February 5, 2023.

In their return to Denver, Watchhouse, formerly Mandolin Orange, joins the Colorado Symphony for an evening of music that will revive the soul. Watchhouse's music radiates a mysterious warmth —with songs feeling like whispered secrets, and for this one night only performance, showcase an entire orchestra beside them creating a new depth and masterful layering. The North Carolina duo, singer-songwriter Andrew Marlin and multi-instrumentalist Emily Frantz, have honed this lamp glow intimacy for years and are thrilled to bring this special evening to life.

Single tickets for these performances will go on sale November 11. For concert descriptions and ticket information, please visit coloradosymphony.org or call the box office at 303.623.7876.

ABOUT THE COLORADO SYMPHONY

One of the leading orchestras in the United States, the Colorado Symphony Association is a not-for-profit 501 (c)(3) organization performing more than 150 concerts annually at Boettcher Concert Hall in downtown Denver and across Colorado. Led by Principal Conductor Peter Oundjian, the Colorado Symphony is home to eighty full-time musicians, representing more than a dozen nations, and regularly welcomes the most celebrated artists from the world of symphonic music and beyond. In the last year, the Colorado Symphony served nearly 233,000 people attending live performances at concert and non-traditional venues throughout Colorado's Front Range. Recognized as an incubator of innovation, creativity, and excellence, the Colorado Symphony continually expands its reach through in-person and virtual education programs, outreach, and programming. The Colorado Symphony partners with the state's leading musical artists, cultural organizations, corporations, foundations, sports teams, and individuals to expose diverse audiences to the transformative power of music.
