COLORADO SYMPHONY ANNOUNCES WOODWIND CHAMBER MUSIC AT THE STEAMBOAT ART MUSEUM

Event will feature musician trio of Catherine Peterson, Nicholas Tisherman, and Abby Raymond

Sep. 22, 2023 – Denver, CO – The Colorado Symphony heads to Steamboat Springs for an eclectic evening of chamber music at the Steamboat Art Museum on October 21, 2023. This event will showcase the exceptional talents of a woodwind trio from your Colorado Symphony: Second/Assistant Principal Flute Catherine Peterson, Second/Assistant Principal Oboe Nicholas Tisherman, and Second/E-flat/Assistant Principal Clarinet Abby Raymond.

This promises to be an unforgettable evening of classical music featuring compositions by legendary composers such as Mozart and Beethoven, among others.

"We are thrilled to bring this chamber ensemble to the Steamboat Art Museum," said Anthony Pierce, Chief Artistic Officer for the Colorado Symphony. "This collaboration between SAM and the Colorado Symphony underscores our commitment to providing exceptional cultural experiences to our communities across the state. We invite music enthusiasts and art lovers from across the region to join us for an evening of enchanting melodies."

Steamboat Art Museum, nestled in the heart of downtown Steamboat Springs, is committed to enhancing the cultural landscape of Northwest Colorado. In a region where access to art museums can be limited by geography, SAM has emerged as a vibrant and accessible cultural hub that enriches the lives of residents and visitors alike.

Tickets for this event are now available and can be purchased at coloradosymphony.org. Due to limited seating, it is advisable to secure tickets early to ensure a seat at this performance.
