COLORADO SYMPHONY ANNOUNCES THE MUSIC OF JOHN WILLIAMS AT FIDDLER'S GREEN AMPHITHEATRE

June 29 concert will feature music from Star Wars, Superman, Indiana Jones, Harry Potter, and more!

Mar. 10, 2025 – Denver, CO – The Colorado Symphony is thrilled to announce The Music of John Williams at Fiddler's Green Amphitheatre on June 29, 2025. Led by Resident Conductor Christopher Dragon, this electrifying performance will transport audiences through the most unforgettable scores in cinematic history, featuring selections from Star Wars, Indiana Jones, Superman, Harry Potter, E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial, and more.

An evening dedicated to the legendary John Williams, this concert showcases the power and magic of his compositions, which have defined generations of storytelling. With sweeping melodies, heroic fanfares, and heart-stirring themes, Williams' music has become as iconic as the films themselves.

"We are always excited to perform John Williams' music—it's some of the most thrilling and recognizable orchestral music ever written," said Dragon. "Hearing these legendary scores performed live by the Colorado Symphony in an open-air setting like Fiddler's Green makes for an unforgettable summer experience audiences won't want to miss."
